Several from here attended the races in Petersburg Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple and daughter Mary were Youngstown visitors last Thursday.

Quite a number from here are attending the chautauqua in Leetonia this week.

A fine display of fall and winter hats in all colors at Brain's Millinery Store—adv.

Mrs. David Welkart left Tuesday morning to visit relatives and friends a few days.

Mrs. George Wilkinson and children of Pittsburgh are here visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Rhoda Bossert was a weekend guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Stamp, in Alliance.

The ball game was called off last Sunday on account of the serious illness of Wm. Stouffer.

Miss Myrtle Baker visited her friend, Miss Kathryn Wilson, in Youngstown over Sunday.

Misses Mary Fitzsimmons, Carrie Woods and Ella Girard are attending the teachers' institute in Lisbon.

Mr. James Welkart and granddaughter Freda visited Mrs. George Grindie near Greenford last Thursday.

Mrs. Charly Roller and little son Eugene of Columbiana spent this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bolton.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dalrymple and little son, Allen James, of Youngstown were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer and son Howard and Harvey Baker motored to Salem Tuesday evening and called on Samuel Greenwalt and family.

The Lutheran church will hold a festival on the church lawn next Saturday evening. The Greenford band will furnish music. Come and enjoy yourself.

The Methodist Sunday school will hold its picnic at Riverside a week from Saturday, Sept. 2. The choir will have a stand to sell soft drinks and ice cream.

Mrs. Marge Williams, Mrs. Keatler, Mrs. Seaborn and son Frank and Clyde Yake of Sharon motored here last Thursday and spent the day with Mrs. Dick Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Seisheiser and son Charles, Mrs. Harry King and Mrs. C. A. Stevenson motored from New Castle and visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJana.

Miss Hazel Indermill was surprised last Saturday afternoon when several young friends called at her home on High street in honor of her birthday. Miss Hazel received quite a number of fine remembrances.

Several young friends of Miss Helen Woods gave her a very pleasant surprise last Thursday evening when they went to her home in honor of her birthday. Miss Helen's mother served a nice lunch and she received several fine presents.

About 75 people attended the annual reunion of the Roller family last week Thursday at Riverside, on the Y. & O. There was a big picnic dinner and the Locust Grove orchestra furnished music. The 1917 reunion will be held at the same place, W. A. Roller of Washingtonville was elected president and Miss Hazel Roller of Columbiana secretary.

Miss Irene Kennedy of Leetonia and Harry Culler, son of Mrs. Anna Culler of this place were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Father Kirby. The young couple were attended by Miss Kennedy, sister of the bride, and Albert Culler, brother of the groom. After the ceremony they returned to the home of the bride where they partook of a wedding supper after which they started on a trip to Detroit and other cities. The young couple will make their home in Washingtonville. They have the best wishes and congratulations of many friends.

Welcome Lodge, No. 247, K. of P., will have a special meeting next Wednesday evening when all members are requested to be present. The committee for the new hall are anxious to get arrangements made so they can start the work on the new hall. Every man and woman in Washingtonville is looking forward to see the improvement. We have two fine churches, an up-to-date school house, and why should we stop there? We need new business blocks and houses; we have calls every day for houses to rent. You say we have empty houses, but what are they? Are they fit to live in? Or are they empty houses and see how soon they will be rented.

After an illness of one week with typhoid fever William Stouffer, aged 30, died at his home Sunday evening. He was the youngest son of Mrs. D. E. Stouffer and is survived by his wife and four children—Merle and Earl, twins about four years, Eunice three and George one. He also leaves three brothers, Harry, Charles and Ray. Mr. Stouffer was employed in Salem at Mullins' shop for several years. He leaves many friends to mourn his loss. He was prominent in all sporting events. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 9:30 at the home here with interment in the Columbiana cemetery. Rev. Chalmers Cope of the Methodist church officiated. The Foresters of America, of which he was a member, had charge of the services at the grave.

The 37th annual reunion of the Roller family was held last Thursday at Riverside, on the Y. & O. line, near Washingtonville. The day was an ideal one so far as the weather was concerned, and about 11 o'clock, when a heavy rain fell, a short business session was held just before the noon hour for the appointing of committees. Two long tables under a large tent were set and friends and members of the family, almost a hundred, sat down to a sumptuous dinner. Excellent music was furnished throughout the day by the Calve orchestra of Locust Grove. An excellent address was given by Prof. E. S. Freed of the Youngstown schools and Rev. H. L. Greenwalt of Newark also spoke. The old officers were re-elected for the next year. The company this year was pleased to see the faces of several from the western part of the state, who are members of the family but had never attended the reunion before. They were G. R. Rhodes and three sisters, Mrs. R. E. Everts, Mrs. Agnes M. Miller and Mrs. E. E. Niman and son, S. C. Niman of Belleville, Ohio.

NEWS NOTES AND COMMENT

Farmers are doing their fall plowing and hauling home their supply of agricultural lime.

Emerson said that "the harmony of men is stronger defense than walls of stone and Dave McCreary, who once operated a livery barn in Washingtonville, are working in the tire department of the Carrollton rubber factory.

An effort is being made here to organize a home for aged women.

There is one for Luke McLuke: Miss Opal Summers of Carrollton has as her Sunday guest Miss Mildred Winters of Alliance.

With a creamery and two milk wagons going each morning and evening, with an ice plant running all day from the city water works, from the city wells, there has not been a single case of infantile paralysis in this community, in spite of our six doctors.

Col. R. C. Williams of this place, one of McKinley's appointees to the West Point Military Academy, has been ordered to duty on the Philippine Islands.

Water is so low in the standpipe that people are not allowed to turn the hose upon their lawns nor to water their flowers for fear of the water being needed for fire purposes.

The Boy Scouts, under direction of Rev. J. B. Manley, were out Monday forenoon and painted green the iron seats in the parks about town.

A young man from Washingtonville was jailed here Sunday morning for uttering the war whoop on the public streets.

The young man of this village who drove Geo. Willis' car from Harlem Springs to Alliance last Saturday evening was arrested, when he returned, for exceeding the speed limit when driving through here.

In the early part of this season we complained of too much rain, and now we kick on too much dryness. Of course the ice cream parlors have the remedy for parched lips.

In order to allow our factories to have more time in loading their express matter, the W. & L. E. train has changed its afternoon schedule from 3:55 to 4:40, thus accommodating the express company at the expense of mail and passengers.

The Carrollton band, after being in a scrap since Decoration day, reorganized Monday. It was decided to secure the services of a band leader for the winter. The band practices in the court house basement.

Chas. Fisher's auto, loaded with passengers, was struck by a freight train making a running switch on the W. & L. E. last week Wednesday, and the car was carried 50 feet along the track and completely wrecked, but fortunately no one was injured.

The Lee township picnic was held upon the Harlem Springs college grounds last Saturday, with a good attendance. The refreshment stand cleared $300 above all expenses. Gov. Willis arrived upon the grounds at 4 p. m. and delivered the usual picnic address. He drove in his auto from Warren, where he held a meeting in the forenoon, and drove back to Alliance.

ance, where he was to speak at night. Some of those who heard his address at Harlem Springs say that James M. Cox ought to be our next governor, as the Cox administration was much better for taxpayers than the schools and good roads than we are having now.

At the M. E. Church services Sunday forenoon Mrs. J. W. Belknap of Steubenville sang a beautiful soprano solo, reminding me much of Miss Elpha Wilson at her best.

Locusts are stinging small trees and shrubbery, and to prevent this the trees are covered with mosquito netting.
